

FTLA Bylaws

1. Officers will include the following, each with two-year terms: president—presides at business meetings and at the roundtable discussions (“exchange of ideas”) and vice-president/president-elect.
2. There will be no membership dues.
3. Membership is open to ATLA institutional members and to regionally accredited educational institutions offering at least a four year degree who are ATLA affiliate members.
4. All programs sponsored by FTLA are open to non members.
5. Any projects of FTLA that require financial commitments will be voluntary on the part of member institutions.
6. The bylaws may be amended or revised provided they are approved by a two thirds majority. Mail ballots will be accepted.
